

SEPTEMBER 13, 2022 PROJECT UPDATE FORUM
Catherine and Isiah Leggett Math and Science Building
Question/Comment	Name	Response	Action	Notes Poppy
What is the estimated completion date?	City Councilmember Peter Kovar	The project is on schedule to be completed in the latter part of 2023. This is dependent on timescales for obtaining permits, materials, and site inspections being carried out.
Library Resource Center
Question/Comment	Name	Response	Action
Can you give a best estimate for completion of this project?	City Councilmember Peter Kovar	The schedule is being finalized with a target end date of January/February 2024 for final completion. As referenced for the Leggett Building, this will be dependent on timescales for obtaining permits and site inspections being carried out.
Where will library functions take place during construction?	Rochelle Follender	There are options to relocate office functions to P1/P2 following the reopening. In addition, there are effective online resources that can be utilized by staff and students.
Pavilions 1 and 2
Question/Comment	Name	Response	Action
The last few weeks have been very noisy. I hope that moving forward the construction partners will do their utmost to reduce noise as much as possible.	Paul Chrostowski	All works have been carried out as standard, however, there will be an investigation into these reports to ensure everything is well placed to reduce noise. Going forward, the site and all associated activity will be monitored closely. Should there be any activities that are expected to produce noise, advance notification will be given to the community.
Could any college activities be scheduled to not coincide with construction activities?	Paul Chrostowski	Montgomery College will coordinate with the Grounds Team to optimize the timing of activities, to the best of our ability.
Is there going to be any closing of New York Avenue?	Paul Chrostowski	There will be strict adherence to the construction directives. There may be short-term closures to allow for deliveries, although there are no major closures planned. Advance notification of partial closures will be given to the community.		